

Public Notice

Klamath River Reach Between Keno, Oregon and Hornbrook, California Recreation Access Sites Seasonal Closures

When: November 20, 2025 to March 31, 2026

What: The Klamath River Renewal Corporation (KRRC) is implementing its Recreation Management Plan and opened five day-use recreation access sites in 2025 along the restored reach of the Klamath River at the previous J.C. Boyle, Copco, and Iron Gate reservoir areas. The Oregon Department of Fish and Wildlife (ODFW) manages the two sites in Oregon, and the California Department of Fish and Wildlife Service (CDFW) manages the three sites in California.

The Pioneer Park West and Moonshine Falls sites in Oregon and the K'utárawáx·u (pronounced ku-ta-ra-wa-hhu) (also known as Grizzly Hill) site in California will close to the public for the winter season from November 20, 2025 to March 31, 2026 based on safety and weather conditions.

More information is available on KRRC's website: klamathrenewal.org/recreation

Where: Three recreation access sites on the restored Klamath River reach between Keno, Oregon and Hornbrook, California:

- Oregon: Pioneer Park West and Moonshine Falls recreation day-use access sites are on the restored Klamath River reach downstream of the Oregon Highway 66.
- California: K'utárawáx·u (Grizzly Hill) recreation day-use access site is on the restored Klamath River reach off of Copco Road.

Questions: Please direct questions to the following:

- ODFW, Klamath Watershed District Office: 541-883-5734
- CDFW: 530-225-2300
- KRRC: info@klamathrenewal.org; 510-560-5079

If you need a copy of this notice in Spanish or Hmong, please contact us directly with your name and we will provide a translation: info@klamathrenewal.org

Si necesita una copia de este aviso en español o hmong, contáctenos directamente con su nombre y le proporcionaremos una traducción: info@klamathrenewal.org

Yog tias koj xav tau tsab ntawv no ua lus Mev lossis lus Hmoob, thov hu rau peb ncaj qha nrog koj lub npe thiab peb yuav muab kev txhais lus: info@klamathrenewal.org